(New York, NY – Tribeca) – Garvey | Simon is pleased to present Homeward Bound, a group exhibition exploring interiors, domesticity, and familial structures. The works in this show evoke the comfort, intimacy, and unique qualities of home through a diverse range of mediums and perspectives. Each piece invites viewers to reflect on their own experiences of belonging, showcasing the emotional and sensory connections we forge with our surroundings. From cozy interiors to the warmth of familiar objects and architectural structures, these artworks explore themes of nostalgia, safety, and personal identity. The familiarity of the subject matter enables an element of formal experimentation, often gesturing towards play and freedom. Homeward Bound features work by Daisy Craddock, Peter Drake, Timothy Hursley, Lori Larusso, Eileen Murphy, Melanie Parke, Julie Peppito, Lily Prince, and Linda Kamille Schmidt. The exhibition opens with a reception on Friday, October 4, 2024 from 5-7pm at Artisan Lofts, 143 Reade Street in Tribeca. After the reception, the exhibition will be on view by appointment only. Contact Liz Garvey at 917-796-2146 or liz@garveysimon.com to schedule a viewing. Texts welcome.
